

Automotive Sales and Service Career Moves

"Career Moves" are pathways between "Career Ladders." They show how workers can move across different sectors to gain experience in automotive sales and service industry careers. The nature of work may be similar or new and different for workers motivated to make such career moves to grow their skill sets and advance.