- 2.2. Not allow officers, members, or committees of the Board to hinder or be an excuse for not fulfilling its group obligations.
- 2.3. Be an initiator of policy, not merely a reactor to staff initiatives. The Board will use the expertise of individual trustees to enhance the work of the Board as a body, but not to substitute their individual judgments for those of the Board as a whole.
- 2.4. Direct, control, and inspire the organization through the careful establishment of the broadest organizational policies reflecting the Board's values and perspectives. The Board's major focus will be on the intended long-term impact outside the college, and not on the administrative or programmatic means of attaining those effects.
- 2.5. Enforce upon itself whatever discipline is needed to govern effectively, with efficiency and excellence. Discipline will apply to matters such as attendance, preparations for meetings, policy-making principles, respect of roles, speaking with one voice, and ensuring the continuity of governance capability.
- 2.6. Pursue continual development, including orientation of new members in the Board's governance process, periodic Board discussion of the vision, mission and values, outcome development, public stewardship, and attendance at state and national trustee conferences.

Board committees, when used, will be assigned so as to reinforce the wholeness of the Board's job. Committees will be used sparingly.

Accordingly, Board Committees are:

- 6.1. To help the Board do its job, not to help, guide or advise the employees of the College do their jobs. Committees typically will assist the Board by preparing policy alternatives and implications for Board deliberation. In keeping with the Board's broader focus, Board committees will, by and large, not have direct dealings with current staff operations.
- 6.2. Not to speak or act for the Board except when formally given such authority for specific and time-limited purposes. Expectations and authority will be carefully stated in order not to conflict with authority delegated to the President.
- 6.3. Not to exercise authority over College employees. The President works for the full Board; therefore the President is not required to obtain approval of a Board committee before an executive action.
- 6.4. To avoid identification with organizational parts rather than the whole. A Board committee that has helped the Board create policy on some subject will not be used to monitor organizational performance on that same subject.
- 6.5. Not to have standing committees. When necessary, the Board will form an ad-hoc committee. Committees will never consist of more than two Board members.

POLICY TITLE:	BOARD MEMBERS CODE OF ETHICS
POLICY NUMBER:	GP-9

The Board of Trustees believes that ethical behavior fosters trust and confidence in the college and its Board of Trustees. Therefore, the Board accepts and commits itself to the responsibility of setting the tone for Shoreline Community College by conducting itself with the highest degree of ethical standards. Trustees shall strive to constantly practice basic ethical values inherent in public service, to promote individual development and the common good, and to do good for the satisfaction of contributing to society and not for personal gain.

Values and Principles of Ethics in Public Service

The values and principles of ethics in public service form the underlying moral foundation for the Board Members' Code of Ethics. The Board believes that such standards promote trust, confidence, and integrity in the working relationship between Trustees and staff. While a code of ethics alone cannot guarantee ethical behavior, the values and principles set forth in this code are intended as a moral guideline for trustees in carrying out their public service.

Accordingly, the Board of Trustees is committed to the following ethical values:

Honor. Honor is having a strong sense of what is right, just, and true. A trustee with honor has a strong sense of duty, pursuing good deeds as ends.
