Parent-Child Center Family Resources

The PCC provides quality, developmentally appropriate care and education to the children of SCC students, employees and the community. Our approach embraces best practices and continuous improvement for the benefit of children, families and staff. We are part of a college learning community that is committed to engagement, equity and excellence.

- State Department of Children, Youth, and Families- Working Connections Child Care (WCCC)- helps families with low incomes pay for child care.
- SCC Foundation Scholarship Office
- SCC Gender Equity Center
- SCC Financial Aid Office
- SCC Benefits Hub/United Way of King County
- Goodwin Connections (formerly Seattle Milk Fund)- We connect families to educational opportunities that build financial stability and create generational change. Our Family Connections Program makes quality childcare and preschool more affordable for parents who are attending college.
- 2-1-1 is a free easy-to-remember telephone number that is your best “first call” to quickly find the right sources of help.
