

Jack S. Kahn, Ph.D.EDUCATION

Doctorate of Philosophy (Ph.D.) in Counseling Psychology,
State University of New York at Buffalo, Buffalo, New York

Master of Science (M.S.) in Marriage, Family, and Child Counseling Psychology,
San José State University, San José, California

Bachelor of Science (B.S.) in Psychology
Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona

ACADEMIC ADMINISTRATIVE LEADERSHIP

July 2017- Present (see Interim President Term below) Assistant Superintendent/ Vice President of Instruction

Palomar College, San Marcos, California

- Responsible for leadership, direction, and management of a large Instructional Division
 - Arts Media Business Administration, Career and Workforce Education, Languages and Literature, Math, Science and Engineering, Social and Behavioral Sciences

Overall duties include: Leadership of Instructional Program, Community Partnerships & Development, Budget, Strategic Enrollment Management & Scheduling, Accreditation, Program Review, Curriculum Development, oversee Catalog and schedule production and Marketing, Sabbatical Leave, Professional Development, compliance with legislative changes and chancellor's office initiatives, & Tenure Review.

Noteworthy Accomplishments:

- Opened Instructional program for two new academic centers in Fallbrook & Rancho Bernardo
- Launched Guided Pathways plan
- Launched Palomar Mapper Tool as part of Guided Pathways effort to assist students in knowing course requirements and job prospects for all degrees at the college
- Supported Math across the Curriculum campaign to integrate Math concepts throughout Course offerings
- Started Completion Academy project to engage faculty in conversations about increasing completion
- Initiated Credit for Prior Learning Military Leadership Apprenticeship to give Marines at Camp Pendleton Course credit for Sargent training
- Developed multiple local and external partnerships with institutions of higher learning and industry

December 2019- July, 2021 Acting/Interim Superintendent/ President
Palomar College, San Marcos, California

- Responsible for leadership, strategic planning, and coordination of statewide and federal initiatives.
 - Governing Board, Research and Planning, Foundation, Public Information & Marketing

Overall duties include: Support the Mission, values and goals of the institution through ensuring fiscal viability, focusing on a student-centered Vision for Success and Guided Pathways model, supporting teaching and learning, furthering equity goals and the antiracist framework, and supporting programs designed for transfer, general education, English and math readiness, career and technical training, as well as lifelong education. In addition, working with colleagues to ensure students are prepared as global citizens in an ever-changing world.

May 1998

University of Maine, Orono, Maine

Phone Bank: African Latino Asian Native American (ALANA) recruitment