ARTS & CULTURE

Advanced Drawing 2

Build on the skills you gained in Drawing for Beginners as you study value, perspective and negative space as it applies to your drawings. Working with drapery, chairs and a still-life setup, you will leave class with greater ability to accurately draw what is before you. This class is designed for students with some experience but is open to all, as the instructor can work with your abilities. Supply list will be provided. For students 16+.

7/13 - 8/17 | 6:00 – 8:30 pm | Thursday (6) | Fee: $129 | Kathleen Koch | Location: 1500 Building, Room 1522, Shoreline CC

Writing Haiku Poetry

Haiku is the sole form of poetry that makes nature into a spiritual journey. Originating in Japan, Haiku emphasizes being in the moment. Traditional Haiku uses seventeen syllables (5-7-5). However, we'll see that contemporary Haiku is a little more free form in style. In this course the instructor will share nature images so that participants can try their hand at composing Haiku poems while in class. It will be a relaxed atmosphere to maximize the fun and enjoyment of writing Haiku poems. The course text is Seeds from a Birch Tree by Clark Strand. Instructor Robert Stahl has taught previous poetry classes on Rumi, Hafez, Emily Dickinson, Rilke, and Mary Oliver in the Seattle-area.

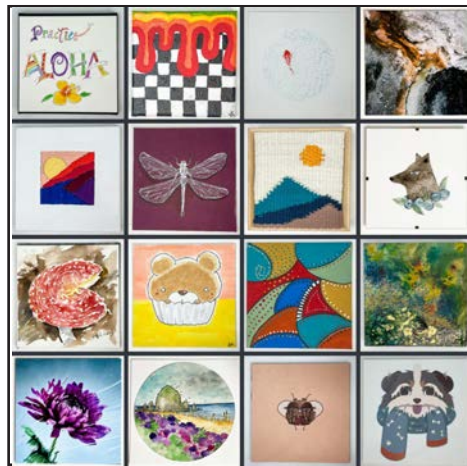

7/13 - 8/3 | 7:00 pm – 9:00 pm | Thursdays (4) | Fee: $99 | Bob Stahl | Online

Chinese Culture & Language: Level 1

During this 8-week Level 1 Integrated Chinese course, students will be introduced to Pinyin, the official romanization system for Standard Mandarin Chinese in China. With Pinyin and tones, students can master pronouncing words properly and start building up vocabularies. Grammar will be taught in communicative approach with many interesting topics. A workbook will be provided. For students 15+ and adults of all ages.
