

Opening Week ∞ September 22-27, 2006 ∞ Shoreline Community College

Friday, September 8 Pre-Opening Week

9:00-11:30am (CLASSIFIED STAFF)

Silent Listening – Room 2925. We do not talk our way into good relationships; we listen our way into them. Most of us realize the importance of effective listening skills, but few of us actually receive instruction in listening competency. Please join Kathleen Lynch as she facilitates a workshop designed to diagnose listening difficulties and provide sensible remedies to these difficulties. The workshop will be interactive and experiential. Please RSVP Chi-Feng Wu, xt. 6652.

11:30am-1:00pm (CLASSIFIED STAFF)

Classified Staff Lunch – 2926. Pizza, salad, pop and cookies are provided by the SCC Foundation and Classified Training and Staff Development. Please RSVP Chi-Feng Wu xt. 6652.

1:00-3:30pm (CLASSIFIED STAFF)

Silent Listening – Room 2925. (Repeat session) Please RSVP Chi-Feng Wu, xt. 6652.

Friday, September 22

9:00am-12:00pm - Meeting, 12:00pm-1:00pm - Potluck

Humanities Division Meeting and Potluck – Room 818 & Room 820 (potluck).

10:15am-12:00pm

Health Occupations & Physical Education Division Meeting and Potluck – Room 2305.

11:30am

Math/Science Division Meeting and Potluck – Room 2925.

12:00pm-12:30pm - Potluck, 12:30pm-2:30pm - Meeting

Business, Automotive, & Manufacturing Division Potluck and Meeting – Room 1402.

1:00pm

Library Division Meeting – Library Mezzanine

1:00pm-3:00pm

Intra-American Studies & Social Sciences Division Meeting and Potluck – Richmond Beach Saltwater Park.

Monday, September 25

8:00-10:00am (FACULTY)

SCCFT Faculty Breakfast – Shoreline Center.

9:30-10:30am (ALL)

Muffin-and-Juice Break – Little Theater Lobby. Snacks provided.

10:30am-12:00pm (ALL)

All Campus Meeting - Sustaining Our Community through Mindful Choices – Little Theater.

12:30-1:45pm (ALL)

Sustaining Our Environment Reusable Bag Lunch: Introduction to the Solar Energy House – at the House northeast of the Little Theater (1508 if it rains). WSU faculty member and Shoreline resident Mike Nelson explains the technology of the solar house, how it came to SCC, and the relationship it helps forge with WSU. Bring a lunch for yourself or to share.

2:00-3:30pm (ALL)

Campus Dialog on Sustainability: How can we all help lessen SCC's “environmental footprint”? – Room 1508 . Facilitated by Tim Payne, Matt Loper, Matt Houghton and Chip Dodd.

Tuesday, September 26

8:30-10:00am (FACULTY)

Getting Started in Blackboard – Room 4214. Get started in a web-based classroom in Blackboard, the software that SCC uses for its online, hybrid, and web-enhanced classes. We will discuss course design and organization, as well as announcements and the online grade book. Please reserve your space by contacting Distance Learning (dl@shoreline.edu or x 6966). Instructor: Ann Garnsey-Harter.

8:30-10:00am (FACULTY)

Supporting the Success of Diverse Students - Room 1701. Learn about the enrollment patterns of SCC's increasingly diverse student population. Discuss mindful practices that enhance our responsiveness – as individuals and as an institution – to students' interests and needs in our diverse learning community. Facilitated by Cathy Chun.

10:30am-12:00pm (FACULTY)

Keepin' it Fresh: Blackboard Roundtable – Room 4214. Everyone is welcome to take part in this roundtable discussion for online teachers who use Blackboard. Come and trade ideas, cranky stories, etc. about online pedagogy and the technology that facilitates online teaching and learning. We will also discuss what's new in Blackboard's latest release, version 7.1, which SCC will be using for Fall Quarter. Facilitated by Betsey Barnett and Ann Garnsey-Harter.

10:30am-12:00pm (ALL)

Budget 101 – Room 2925. Mary Alice Grobins, from the State Board for Community and Technical Colleges (SBCTC), presents the state budgeting process for community colleges. The presentation and Q&A session will help you better understand SCC's current budget situation. (Repeated at 1:30pm.)

12:00-1:30pm (ALL)

SCC Loop Tour: 83 Acres of Excellence - Meet at Library South entrance.

(Re)discover the many assets that the college offers students and the community. Explore our beautiful campus and learn about our programs, facilities, resources and hidden treasures.

1:30-3:00pm (ALL)

Pedagogy of Multicultural Understanding – Room 1701. Learn about SCC's Multicultural Understanding student learning outcome and research on approaches to teaching students about cultural competence and power and privilege. Led by Ernest Johnson & Betty Peace-Gladstone.

1:30-3:00pm (ALL)

Budget 101 – Room 2925. Repeat of 10:30am session.

3:30-5:00pm (FACULTY)

Resources for Teaching – Room 5302. Come to this interactive workshop for new and returning FT and Associate faculty. Review syllabus development and share teaching tips. Review syllabus development, share teaching tips and learn about library resources for faculty. Refreshments, goodie bags and door prizes. Facilitated by Norma Goldstein, Elena Bianco, Berta Lloyd & Yvonne Terrell-Powell.

4:00-6:00pm (ALL)

Reception with the President – Building 1000 Gallery. Stop by the College Gallery to meet with President Lambert and discuss ideas for the upcoming year. Refreshments provided by the SCC Foundation.

Wednesday, September 27

8:30-10:00am (FACULTY)

Retaining Students with Early Alert – Room 1701. Keeping students aware of their academic progress as early as possible is key to student retention—keeping our students here to pursue their goals. Faculty will learn how they can participate in the Early Alert project that SCC is undertaking. Facilitated by Carla Hogan.

8:30-10:00am (ALL)

Nature Walk. Led by Matt Loper - Meet at Library entrance.

8:30–10:00am (ALL)
Simon Says: Sustain This! – Room 2926. Participants use art and dialogue to explore the relationship between climate and leadership at SCC. We also will consider personal and college-wide practices that can positively influence campus climate. Facilitated by Pam Dusenberry, Brooke Zimmers & Dorothy Cirelli.
10:30am–12:00pm (FACULTY)
Greening the Curriculum – Room 1701. A discussion about how to transform curricula in any discipline to include an environmental component, and how we might create a wide array of vocational, transfer and continuing education programs for the college with a focus on the environment. Facilitated by Tim Payne, Matt Loper, Matt Houghton, Chip Dodd.
10:30am–12:00pm (FACULTY)
Sustaining Student Success through Advising – Room 2926. Since advising students is very important to their success and retention in college, SCC Advising and Counseling is increasing training opportunities to improve the advising that students receive. Presented by the Advising and Counseling Center faculty.
12:15–1:15pm (ALL)
Campus Tour: What, No PUB? Finding Services in New Places - Meet at Library entrance. Find out where students and employees can buy food, eat, study and meet during 2006-07 while the PUB is being rebuilt. And, visit programs that are temporarily relocated.
2:00–4:00pm (FACULTY)
Faculty Senate Meeting Room – 1102. This is the first of two general Faculty Senate (all faculty) meetings for the year. Current topics being considered by the Faculty Senate Council will be discussed, as well as matters raised by those attending. Contact Senate Council Chair Rachel David, x4760, for information.
4:00-6:00pm (ALL)
“Opening Doors” New Student Welcome – Library Upstairs. Staff and faculty are invited to welcome new students to the SCC community. Through interactive activities, students will get information and support that will help them successfully settle into the college environment. Free munchies.
4:00-7:00pm (ALL)
Board of Trustees Meeting – Board Room.

Sustaining Our Community through Mindful Choices

Shoreline Community College begins the 2006-07 academic year with renewed commitment to our core values, including a deepened focus on environmental responsibility. Sustainability means we commit to making decisions that conserve and protect all our resources—human, natural, fiscal—to serve us now and into the future.

sus-tain verb

1. To keep in existence; maintain.
2. To supply with necessities or nourishment; provide for.
3. To support from below; keep from falling or sinking; prop.
4. To support the spirits, vitality, or resolution of; encourage.
5. To bear up under; withstand: can't sustain the blistering heat.
6. To experience or suffer: sustained a fatal injury.
7. To affirm the validity of: The judge has sustained the prosecutor's objection.
8. To prove or corroborate; confirm.
9. To keep up (a joke or assumed role, for example) competently.

[Middle English sustenen, from Old French sustenir, from Latin sustinere : sub-, from below; see sub- +

tenere, to hold; see ten- in Indo-European roots.]

mind-ful adjective Attentive; heedful.

“Mindfulness is the capacity to be fully aware of all one experiences inside the self—body, mind, heart, spirit—and to pay full attention to what is happening around us—people, the natural world, our surroundings, and events.” (Boyatzis and McKee, Resonant Leadership, 2005, p. 112.)

sus-tain-a-ble de-vel-op-ment “Meeting the needs of the present generation without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their needs.” (Brundtland Report, 1987)

SHORELINE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Opening Week

September 22 – 27, 2006

Shoreline Community College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, sexual orientation, or age in its program and activities.

OW-083106