OPTIONAL COSTS:

Magnification Loupes (to be purchased in Winter Qtr/1st Year) $900

National Board Review Course (optional: does not include lodging, transportation) $250-$500

Due to the intensity and rigorous nature of the program, we strongly advise relying on financial aid rather than a part-time job while in the program.

NOTES:

Veterans - There are several tuition rates for qualifying veterans. To find out which rate is appropriate for you, contact: Missy Anderson, Certifying Official, FOSS Building, Rm 5226, manderson4@shoreline.edu, 206-546-4645

The rates shown above are for tuition (retained by the college and the State of Washington) and the services and activities fees (transferred to student government) only. In addition to the above tuition and fees, all students pay supplemental fees, as enacted by student government, in the following amounts:

Student union building (PUB) renovation fee: $4.40 per credit, up to 12 credits ($52.80 maximum)

Sustainable commuter options fee (SCOF): $34.00 per student per quarter

Student technology fee: $4.40 per credit, up to 10 credits ($44.00 maximum)

Student completion fee: $0.50 per credit, up to 10 credits ($5.00 maximum)

Particular courses may also have additional fees for materials, supplies, or other charges.

*For purposes of being considered "full-time" for funding from federal and state financial aid programs, Department of Veterans Affairs, Social Security, and most other outside agencies, a student is required to carry at least 12 credits.

The per-credit fee for over 18 credits may be subject to a partial waiver for required vocational courses.

NOTE: The tuition rates shown above were accurate as of the date of publication. Tuition and fees are subject to change by the legislature of the State of Washington, the State Board for Community and Technical Colleges, the Shoreline Community College Board of Trustees, and the Shoreline Community College Student Body Association.
