III. Member Updates

Brenda Neuman – Swedish Edmonds

- Construction continues with new ER- opening end of 2015. There will be a Starbucks on campus. Increased parking with parking garage- parking is still free. Leave close parking for patients.

- This year going towards Pathways of Excellence (kind of a magnet status). Kickoff will start next week. Looking at how nurses impact care at the bedside.
- No changes expected with students .
- Implemented barcoding and returning to Pyxis.

Dan Fey

- Labor market status – unemployment rate 4.8 – 4.9% in the Puget Sound region. Good amount of community need. Construction up 2/14-2/15 is up Healthcare is not as much growth – it has never gone down – healthcare as a pathway has resilience – RN is in the top 20 jobs. Healthcare practitioners – gap of at least 1400 jobs in healthcare.
- Advisory Committee Handbook is being updated. He described the purpose and function of Advisory Committees which are mandated by the state for Prof-Tech programs to align industry and education. – to keep information current and to keep things compliant with facilities and community and the program. He expressed appreciation for members for their participation.
- The state has asked the colleges to look at non-traditional students in the nursing program. He met with 4 male nursing students who stated they feel embraced in the community. As a college we are under performing with non-traditional students. We do have two male nursing program faculty at this time – they are part time instructors

Lori Stephens – SCCANS Update

- Nurses Day Celebration – May 5th (11:30 a.m.). Speaker on Team STEPPS. Speaker from TEAM Steps.
- Graduation – Thursday, June 11, 2015

- 2 new leaders for SCCANS – Jenna Loney and Emily Miller
- Did a blood drive last quarter
- Scholarships will be awarded at Nurses day celebration

Trena Redman

- Attending QSEN conference in May (San Diego, CA)

Niki Kirby for Debbie Kelly- Virginia Mason Medical Center

- Thank you to Nursing Instructors – had a wonderful start here at Shoreline Community College; use SCC values every day; graduated 2006

- Nurses Day - Highlighting evidence-based practice. VMMC having big celebration. Have reenergized the Daisy Awards- 3 awards given
- Have 12 new grads in residency program
- Continue to focus on sepsis
- A very high census
- New change for students with Cerner- live in August; new faculty will get training this summer.

Kathryn Ogden – Swedish Medical Center

- Nurses week celebration. New COO- Jean Altaris
- Margo White.....CEO – first time a Nurse has been on the board
- Smart pump implementation- training classes going well for students – fully integrated with EPIC; trained 3300 nurses in 10 days
- Pyxis is being upgraded
- Lots of growth and census is very high –Group Health is moving adult patients to Swedish; Ballard has just added a level II nursery
- Hiring NAC education tract – application is open right now – lots of NAC positions open; need to be able to work full-time over the summer and part-time during the school year;
- Nurse Techs can only have a year left of school
- 300 nurse residents/year. Next residency in July
- Pathways of Excellence is a road to Magnet status– Ballard was the first hospital in Washington to receive this distinction – most nurses responded to the survey and reported satisfaction at Swedish; This is a new program for smaller hospitals – ones without researchers

Karen Paulsen – Northwest Hospital

- New nurses – extending orientation
- Nurses week- celebrating longevity- recognizing nurses who have been at NWH for more than 15 years and night shift nurses, and preceptors
- New computer training at NWH through UW- instructors need training
- Focusing on Patients are First initiative – all clinical instructor will go through this hour long training program – this helps to bring up scores for the hospital. The training has not started yet for clinical instructors – Instructors to do training to be able to bring information to the students. Karen will send information to Lynn who will forward to instructors
- New director of research and education – Lee McDonald. Janinie Buis is now Assistant Director.

Mary Burroughs

- Lynn will be receiving The Shining Star Award from KCNA at the annual banquet on May 7.
- 10 -Quarter students will be going to clinical this summer – Joy going to Swedish.
- Contact Kathryn for a possible extra space

Jessica Simpson

- Men in Nursing articles are being given out to new 5th quarter male nursing students. Past male OB students have been asked to write down an observation on how to adjust to the OB content
- Front loading 5th quarter – started in the summer – took some of the early times to front load and prepare for the OB content and then make up the health promotion content at the end. Goal is to provide students with post-partum content so they are better prepared for clinical. Also have an OB skills lab which includes newborn care. Working with sim baby has been very beneficial.

Cathy Otto – Dean of HO/PE, Business and PE

- Introduction and previous healthcare experience

Joanne Metropolis – SEIU

- Training fund w/Swedish and NWH which help students get through training programs, including ADN and BSN nursing programs. 47% minorities
